

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
EUGENE DIVISION

JOHN SPRADLEY,

Plaintiff,

Civil No. 11-1137-TC

v.

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION

STATE OF OREGON, et al.,

Defendants.

COFFIN, Magistrate Judge.

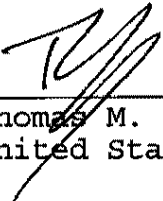

By Order (#9) entered October 11, 2011, plaintiff was allowed 30 days to file an amended pleading and advised that failure to do so would result in the dismissal of this proceeding for failure to prosecute.

Plaintiff has not filed an amended pleading or requested an extension of time in which to do so. This action should be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

This recommendation is not an order that is immediately appealable to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Any notice of appeal pursuant to Rule 4(a)(1), Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, should not be filed until entry of the district court's judgment or appealable order. The parties shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this recommendation within which to file specific written objections with the court. Thereafter, the parties have fourteen (14) days within which to file a response to the objections. Failure to timely file objections to any factual determinations of the Magistrate Judge will be considered a waiver of a party's right to de novo consideration of the factual issues and will constitute a waiver of a party's right to appellate review of the findings of fact in an order or judgment entered pursuant to the Magistrate Judge's recommendation.

DATED this 15 day of February, 2012.

Thomas M. Coffin
United States Magistrate Judge
